COMMISSION ON CONSUMER AFFAIRS NAMES PINKSTON SCDCA ADMINISTRATOR

Columbia, SC -- In its meeting on Tuesday, April 13, 2004, The Commission on Consumer Affairs announced its unanimous selection of Brandolyn Thomas Pinkston as Administrator of the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs. Pinkston had been Acting Administrator of the Department since October 2002.

The Hartsville native has held several positions at the Department, including Deputy for Public Information and Education and Education Coordinator. She has also served as president for the National Consumers League in Washington and has held a number of other leadership positions on boards and committees locally and nationally.

Pinkston is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Thomas of Hartsville. She is married to Jerome L. Pinkston, Jr., and has two daughters, Paula and Joya.
