Consumers Encouraged to Explore SCDCA Blog

COLUMBIA, S.C. – The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (SCDCA) is encouraging consumers to take advantage of its educational blog, SCDCA Spotlight.

The blog, which debuted on February 24, is aimed at keeping the public informed on consumer issues. Each article focuses on a specific consumer related topic and provides practical tips and advice. Previous topics include how to save more money, financial monitoring tools and how to opt out of unwanted offers. This month's article discusses the lack of security when using email and how to minimize your risk.

To get the latest blog posts and more, consumers should sign up for SCDCA emails. Simply visit www.consumer.sc.gov and click Get Email Updates. To access the blog SCDCA Spotlight directly, click Consumer Information.

About SCDCA

The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs aims to protect consumers from inequities in the marketplace through advocacy, complaint mediation, enforcement and education. To file a complaint or get information on consumer issues, visit www.consumer.sc.gov or call toll-free, 1-800-922-1594.
