A discount medical plan organization that files its renewal on a timely basis may continue operating unless the registration is denied or revoked by the department.

The annual application fee must accompany each application and is NOT refundable. The fee for a DMPO with 0-50 representatives is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). The fee for a DMPO with 51-100 representatives is Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00). The fee for a DMPO with over 100 representatives is One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00). Applications will not be processed without the required applications fees.

An incomplete application will only be held, pending completion, for 90 days following first receipt. If the application has not been completed within 90 days of the Department's receipt of the first application, it will be rejected. The applicant, if it chooses, may submit a new application and fee. The Department will give notice to the applicant as to why the application is "incomplete" and request additional information. The applicant must submit the information (to complete the application) within 90 days of the Department's first receipt. If the applicant fails to submit the information requested within the allotted time, the application is deemed "incomplete" and will be rejected. The applicant, if it so chooses, may withdraw the application, within the initial 90 days, if the application is "incomplete" and it is unable to provide the requested information. The withdrawn application would not be labeled as "rejected" or "denied."
